

SUMMER TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM 2011

"All teachers should have these experiences and share them with their students!"

"The sharing among all the teachers, regardless of school or class subject or age group is inspiring and catalytic and absolutely invaluable to me for ideas!"

This program is supported in part by grants from the MetLife Foundation - Museum and Community Connections Program and The Hearst Foundations.

July 11-15, 2011

TRIED & TRUE TECHNIQUES XI:

Curricular Connections through Hands-on Activities

Instructor: Melanie Fales, Terra Feast and Drew Williams Larned
Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Cost: $60 (Deadline June 3, 2011) Spaces fill early.
Credits: Register for two optional University of Idaho or Boise State University in-service credits the first day of class.
Enrollment: Class size is limited for optimal learning

Back this summer by popular demand, this is the eleventh class of its type at BAM. This hands-on course offers classroom teachers and their aides the opportunity to learn strategies for actively engaging students with works of art and to create their own artwork using a variety of media and techniques. Brainstorming sessions provide invaluable time for sharing ideas for adapting and using the presented activities. This class focuses on integrating art into the required classroom curricula through participation in innovative interdisciplinary activities.

July 25 – 29, 2011

BEYOND THE CLASSROOM XII:

Using Community Resources to Teach

Instructor: Melanie Fales, Terra Feast and Drew Williams Larned
Time: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
Cost: $60 (Deadline June 3, 2011) Spaces fill early.
Credits: Register for two optional University of Idaho or Boise State University in-service credits the first day of class.
Enrollment: Class size is limited for optimal learning

This is the twelfth year BAM has conducted this popular five-day institute. This program is presented in collaboration with area museums and community organizations. Teachers will have the opportunity to visit exhibitions, play educational games, and share ideas for using educational resources. This class focuses on providing teachers with experiences, materials, ideas and resources from community organizations that can be used in the classroom. There will be ample walking throughout the week.

REGISTRATION FORM

Complete the registration form and enclose a check (if applicable) payable to the Boise Art Museum. No telephone registrations. Registration is final. No refunds will be granted. For further information, please contact Terra Feast, Curator of Education at 345-8330 ext. 18.

Class _____ Fee _____

Payment: Check enclosed MC VISA Expiration (mo/yr) _____ -- _____ Card # _____

Signature _____

Educator Name _____

Teaching Grade _____ Subject _____

School Name _____ City _____

Teacher Mailing Address (where you prefer to receive confirmation of registration and reminders this summer):

_____ City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Telephone _____ E-mail Address _____

Photo Release: I agree to allow my photographs taken during my participation in BAM classes to be published in future Museum publications.

For these courses, teachers enter and leave the Museum through the rear education entrance facing Julia Davis Park.

Return this form with payment to: BAM Classes, 670 Julia Davis Drive Boise, Idaho 83702