Area of Interest

- Administrative Volunteers: There are administrative projects in all departments of the Museum for which BAM welcomes volunteer assistance including mailings, filing, data entry and website updating.
- Ambassadors: Ambassadors greet visitors, take admissions, and provide information about the Museum.
- Docents: Docents attend weekly educational training and conduct tours of the Museum's exhibitions for adults and children. New docent applications are accepted in January of each year during a formal orientation session. Prospective docents are contacted in the winter about the January class.
- Internships: BAM's Education Department provides a variety of internship opportunities for credit and non-credit.
- Special Events Volunteers: Special events volunteers assist with BAM's fundraisers such as Art in the Park and/or exhibition opening parties and other events at BAM.
- Teen Volunteers: Teen volunteers assist BAM's Education Department with classes and camps, prepare hands-on art materials, and may serve on BAM's Teen Advisory Committee.
- Visitor Services Volunteers, The BAM Store: Visitor services volunteers greet patrons, take admission, assist customers in the store, answer the telephone, and provide information about the Museum and surrounding areas.
