

BAM

DOCENT PROGRAM

BOISE ART MUSEUM

do·cent (n)

one who volunteers to guide and facilitate learning;
from the Latin, docere 'teach'

BAM docents are:

volunteers at the Boise Art Museum who engage visitors of all ages with art through a variety of educational experiences;

- Enthusiastic about sharing art with the community;
- Open-minded and flexible;
- Facilitators of inquiry-based and student-centered learning; and
- Trained to guide tours in BAM's Free School Tour Program.

Submit a volunteer application at www.boiseartmuseum.org/volunteer-opportunities/

New Docent Meeting
Monday, August 26, 2019
9:30 a.m.—10:30 a.m.

RSVP

Emily Nadel, Curator of Education
emily@boiseartmuseum.org

